

1. Get into groups of three. Introduce yourselves. The person who has the longest time teaching is the recorder for this activity. If time teaching is a tied, the person with a birthday earliest in the calendar year is the recorder.
2. The two other team members will talk about this map which shows the spatial distribution of hurricanes, while the recorder takes notes about the discussion.